

Brunfelsia – Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

The most well-known of the Brunfelsia genus is undoubtedly the soft pink, mauve and white petals Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow.

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow flower in early spring and late summer (two flushes). The scented petals appear in pink, mauve and white.

Evergreen and long-lived, this shrub makes for good greenery in the garden or in a container. Be sure to position it in a sunny or lightly-shaded spot.
