

TOMATO CASCADES

Pots and Hanging Baskets

New dwarf tomatoes have been bred specifically for small pots and hanging baskets, great if space is a problem. As with most plants, they require full sun for a good portion of the day.

Feed weekly with Nutrifeed and water regularly. If the pots are very small or the tomatoes are in hanging baskets, make sure to water daily otherwise a few times a week will do.

For more information on food gardening go back to the Gardening Information page on the Starke Ayres Garden Centre website, and download Starting a Vegetable Garden, Grow Your Own Healthy Veg, How to Sow Seeds, Starke Ayres Star Veg or Vegetables Pamphlet.

